Adams County Farmers Are Severe Sufferers From The Hessian Fly

Expert Advises Sowing Of Winter Wheat After October 1.

No larger in size than a mosquito, which it closely resembles, and living in the adult stage no longer than a week. Such is the biological insignificance of the Hessian fly.

Damages conservatively estimated at $1,000,000 and more a year to the Pennsylvania wheat crop. Complete infestation in many districts. Total ruination of countless fields of young wheat plants. Such is the economic moment of the same Hessian fly.

In the last year, thinks Thomas L. Guyton, state entomologist, the fly has probably reached as ruinous a stage as it is possible for him to attain. In some places, fields have been virtually plundered of their entire wheat production. Heavy infestations are in prospect for the next few years.

Conducts Survey in Adams
C. C. Hill, associate entomologist stationed at the United States Entomological Laboratory, Carlisle, says that the most severe infestations are present in Cumberland, York, Adams, Lehigh, Bedford, Perry, Juniata, Mifflin, Northumberland, Lycoming, Centre and Butler counties. Mr. Hill has been connected with an extensive survey conducted in the state by his laboratory, the most important for its Hessian fly work in the eastern states.

He is authority for the statement that the fly infested certain sections of the state in far greater numbers last year than at any time in the last ten years. The prospects for next year indicate an infestation of equal or greater seriousness.

Heavy Infestation in State
The Hessian fly, an old-timer in insect "pest-dom" in Pennsylvania, as well as elsewhere, is present throughout the state, but the central area, from Lycoming county to the Pennsylvania-Maryland boundary, is subject to the heaviest infestation.

For the wheat-growers of Dauphin, Cumberland, York and Adams counties, Mr. Hill advocates sowing wheat after October 1 to avoid infestation of the fly.

The fly occurs in two generations during the year, and the second generation adult flies come out most abundantly during September, according to Mr. Hill. Volunteer wheat, and wheat sown before the fly-free date, becomes infested with the progeny of this generation. By the time cold weather arrives, he explains, this fall generation has finished feeding and entered the inactive puparium form in which it passes the winter, hidden under the leaf sheaths of the young wheat.

Two Life Cycles Each Year
The life cycle, which consumes from September to April or May to September in the "summer generation," is similar to some other insects, including an egg, larva, puparium and fly stages.

The female Hessian fly, in her adult stage, lays from 200 to 300 minute eggs, which she deposits on the upper surface of the wheat leaf. Mr. Hill describes the development of the eggs as follows: "In the course of a few days, a small larva, or maggot, hatches out and crawls down the leaf and underneath the sheath until it reaches a node near the base of the plant. There it lodges and feeds by sucking sap from the stem. It is during this stage that damage is done to the wheat plant. In about three weeks, it stops feeding and without changing its location forms a brown case about itself, called a puparium. It now has about the size and appearance of a flaxseed. The longest period of its life is spent in this condition." (Continued on Second Page.)

NEW BUS LINE THROUGH TOWN

Continental Company Establishes Cross-country Service With G-burg As A Stop.

The Continental bus line is the latest cross-country passenger carrying concern to route buses through Gettysburg.

The line is being established from coast to coast and one bus is now being run in each direction daily between Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, following the Lincoln Highway throughout.

This is the fourth trans-continental line to put Gettysburg on its schedule and to make this a regular stop for meals and brief rest, and "limbering up" period for travelers.

The new company maintains large modern buses, painted a light brown, with black decorations, and each bus carries two uniformed drivers. The buses in each direction go through late at night or in the early morning.

The other transcontinental lines through Gettysburg are the Greyhound, the Nevin and the Yellow-Way. Mitchell's restaurant is the local stopping point of the new line.

EVANS' BRIDE IS KNOWN HERE

Miss Esther Underwood Visited In Gettysburg And Was Entertained.

Miss Esther Underwood, whose marriage to Charles E. "Chick" Evans, noted golfer, was contained in Metropolitan papers this morning, is well known in Adams county. Last summer she was a guest of Mrs. Eugene Craighead, Baltimore street, and was a guest of honor at several social functions. She has visited Gettysburg and Adams county residents on a number of occasions and has a wide circle of friends.

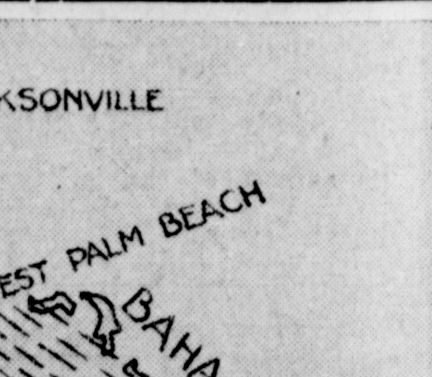

The couple was married Tuesday, at a quiet ceremony in the Lake Placid Club chapel. Mr. and Mrs. B. F. Underwood, of Summit, New Jersey, and a few relatives and friends were present. Mrs. Evans' father was the founder of the firm of photographers bearing his name.

Evans, for years one of the leading amateur players of the country, is the only man to have won both the amateur and the open in the same year, achieving that golfing pinnacle in 1916. He holds none of the better-known titles at the present time.

Evans is engaged in business in Chicago. He is 38 years old.

HONOR LAWYER'S MEMORY

The York County Bar association met in the court house in York this morning at 10 o'clock to pass resolutions of respect to the memory of Charles Milton Wolff, of Hanover, veteran lawyer, who died Tuesday evening at the age of 82 years.

Herbert Hoover, Republican nominee for president, went back into the lead over Al Smith, Democratic nominee, in The Gettysburg Times straw vote.

Soon after the vote for today was completed at noon, there was a flood of votes unopened when The Times office counter and through the mails, but these will not be tallied before tomorrow noon.

A surprising feature of the vote is that from extremely lower sections of the county, where The Times is not as generally circulated as around Gettysburg and in the Upper End communities, the vote is commencing to come in strong through the mails.

The Fairfield sector has been a heavy factor in the voting, according to the postmarks of letters. In many cases, those casting votes for both candidates sign their names. This is not absolutely necessary, although it assures the genuineness of the vote.

CORN HARD HIT, APPLES SUFFER, FROM THE WIND

Stalks Twisted From Ground; Fruit Fall Above Normal In County.

Adams county corn fields were hardest hit by the wind storm which swept through this region Tuesday and Wednesday, the tail end of the hurricane that swept through Porto Rico, Virgin Islands and Florida and then moved northward along the Atlantic seaboard. High stalks of corn were blown down or twisted to pieces in many sections of the county and it will be a difficult task to harvest the corn this year. Most of the fields were unharvested when the high winds reaching a velocity of more than 20 miles an hour whizzed over the mountains and into this district. The damage to the corn crop, for husking and filling silos, will be heavy, according to many prominent farmers of the county.

The apple orchards were not damaged as severely as the corn. In many unprotected areas there was a drop of apples, slightly above normal, while in unprotected areas, on hills and peaks, there was more than an ordinary drop, but the damage is not expected to even near that done to the corn.

No estimated has been placed on the amount of damage done to corn and apples, but it was said by those familiar with such incidents, that the damage will be considerable.

When the wind began to blow yesterday morning Adams county growers, particularly in the northern section of the county, where the vast orchards are located, became worried, but later in the day the high wind caused much concern.

Examination of the orchards made by the growers show that in some sections where the storm did the most damage hundreds of bushels of apples were knocked from the trees.

In the orchard of Fred Griest, near Flora Dale, where he had a crop of about 100 bushels of the McIntosh variety of apples, which he intended to start to pick today, virtually the whole crop is on the ground and is lost. In other orchards, especially those exposed to the high wind, the damage was about on the same scope. A grower last night estimated that at least five per cent of the apple crop of Adams county has been damaged by the storm.

Other growers state that the loss is not as severe in most sections of the county.

$1,000 NEEDED FOR RELIEF WORK

Adams County's Quota For Red Cross Flood Fund Is Fixed.

The Adams county chapter of the American Red Cross, at the request of Washington headquarters, has fixed $1,000 as the quota from this county to be raised for relief of the stricken residents of Florida, Porto Rico and the Virgin Islands, recently swept by a severe hurricane.

Money and clothes are needed to relieve the suffering thousands of the storm swept area, and the national headquarters of the Red Cross is making a strong appeal for money and clean clothing, especially clothing of the washable material to be used in the tropical zones.

Adams county pastors have been requested, and the majority have agreed so far, to make appeals for money and clothing, from the pulpit Sunday morning. These appeals are expected to come from every pulpit, regardless of the denomination, in Adams county, and Red Cross officials here are hopeful of oversubscribing their $1,000 quota.

Many responses have been received at the Red Cross offices in the court house from various sections of the county, and Miss Margaret McMillan, secretary of the chapter and county welfare worker, said this morning that the clothes and money can be sent to the offices here, or those desiring to contribute something may notify the Red Cross office, and the clothes to be donated will be collected by a Red Cross worker.

Another telegraphic request for aid was received from national headquarters this morning, emphasizing the urgent need of money and clothing. The death toll and the list of homeless and starving is increasing daily and no estimate as to the amount required to care for the stricken residents can be fixed by the Red Cross at this early date, or at least until more definite information has been compiled of the dead, dying and starving.

No Concrete Evidence Of Liquor Can Be Found By State Police.

J. H. Bowman, Berwick, tobacco salesman, driver of the coupe that crashed into the covered bridge at the end of Hanover street, early Sunday morning, in which four persons were injured, two seriously, will not be arrested, according to District Attorney John P. Butt.

"The evidence gathered in our investigation together with that of the state police does not warrant the filing of any charge against Bowman at this time," Mr. Butt said.

State police have conducted a thorough investigation into the crash, dealing especially with conflicting reports that Bowman was under the influence of liquor at the time of the crash, and that he was still under the influence when apprehended in a local hotel, several hours after the crash.

Trooper Davis, who was in charge of the investigation, told District Attorney Butt this morning that he could not find substantiating evidence against Bowman. The trooper said that most of the stories conflicted and that there was not sufficient evidence to charge Bowman with being under the influence of liquor.

Miss Catherine Busey, 17-year-old Waynesboro girl, who was injured in the crash, was the only occupant, besides Bowman, who was questioned by the state police. She told the trooper that they did not have any liquor during the course of the evening, and others, visiting physicians at the local hospital, also informed the trooper that Bowman did not appear under the influence of liquor, when he was admitted to the hospital, early Sunday morning.

Bowman's story of his disappearance after the crash, his being caught in a bar-wire fence a few feet from the scene of the accident, and his wanderings about the streets of town, was possibly due to his dazed condition brought on by the crash and influenced by the crash and influenced by the crash and influenced by the crash.

If either of the two persons seriously injured, Miss Greeba Bell and Edwin O. Snyder, fail to survive their injuries, the district attorney would not say whether he would file charges against Bowman.

Miss Bell, who has been in a very serious condition since the accident, was reported "fairly good" by hospital authorities this afternoon. It was said that she is showing signs of improvement and hospital attendants are hopeful of her recovery.

Snyder, who has been unconscious since the crash, regained consciousness several times Wednesday and this morning, but only for a brief time, immediately lapsing into a state of coma. His mind is not clear, as yet. The Times was informed, but his condition is sufficient to give hospital attendants brighter hopes for his recovery.

SEIZE YOUTH IN FARM MURDERS

Arrested As He Steps From Boat In British Columbia.

Vancouver, B. C., Sept. 20.—(AP)—Gordon Stuart Northcott, wanted in Riverside, Calif., in connection with murder farm disclosures there, was arrested at Okanagan Landing, seven miles from Vernon, B. C., Inspector Forbes Cruickshank, of the Provincial police, announced late Wednesday.

It was said Northcott admitted his identity. His mother was not with him, but a later dispatch quoted Northcott as saying that a woman arrested at Calgary as a suspect was his mother.

Inspector Cruickshank received the message yesterday afternoon telling of the arrest. The Canadian press also received partial confirmation in a news dispatch from Vernon, stating that Northcott, "or a man believed to be Northcott," had been taken into custody at Okanagan Landing on arrival of the boat.

The news dispatch would make it appear that Northcott had boarded the Canadian Pacific Railway company's steamer at some point south of Okanagan Landing, the northern terminus of the run on Okanagan Lake, between Penticton and Okanagan Landing.

Woman Held in Calgary

The fact that Mrs. Louisa Northcott was not with her son lent color to the report that she may have reached Calgary.

The police here learned that a woman and a young man purchased tickets on Tuesday at Spences Bridge, B. C., for Calgary.

Police believe that the pair left Vancouver and proceeded by automobile along the Cariboo road to Spences Bridge, 175 miles east of Vancouver on the main line of the Canadian Pacific Railway, boarded a train there and proceeded together as far as Siamois. At this point it is believed young Northcott preceded south on the branch line to Okanagan Landing while his mother continued along the main line to Calgary on the Vancouver-Toronto express.

GORED TO DEATH BY PRIZE BULL

Hoover To Ignore Smith Questions

Washington, Sept. 20.—(AP)—At Herbert Hoover's personal headquarters here it was said that the Republican presidential nominee would not take cognizance of the questions put to his Democratic opponent, Gov. Alfred E. Smith, at Omaha.

The inquiry which dealt with prohibition and farm relief among other subjects have not been submitted to Mr. Hoover, but it was reiterated that the Republican nominee would follow his policy set down at the outset of the campaign to confine his public announcements to his prepared addresses and formal statements.

STORM MOVES UP COAST; FOUR DEAD IN JERSEY

Food Supplies Com- mence Arriving In Hurricane Dis- tricts Of Porto Rico.

New York, Sept. 20.—(AP)—The fringe of the tropical hurricane which swept through the West Indies and Florida leaving a trail of death and destruction lashed the North Atlantic coast today but with diminishing violence.

From Hatteras to Boston the high seas pounded the shore line and the wind which reached "whole gale" force blew down trees, telephone poles and destroyed light and power systems for several miles inland.

Winds ranging from eighty miles an hour down to 25 miles in protected sections swept away many small boats and forced others to take shelter.

Four deaths were directly attributed to the storm in New Jersey.

San Juan, Porto Rico, Sept. 20.—(AP)—Food supplies were moving into the hurricane stricken districts today under Red Cross supervision. Tents and blankets were being distributed by the army for emergency hospitals and for the shelter of those weakened by privation.

With actual relief either provided for or plans well under way for it, attention was centered on putting Porto Rico to work to keep down idleness and restore morale through self help.

Deaths Increase In Florida

Washington, Sept. 20.—(AP)—The continued desperate plight of storm sufferers in Palm Beach county and other parts of Florida was pictured in a report to Red Cross headquarters today from Red Cross workers who said there was a strong possibility that the original estimate of 400 deaths in Florida would be increased.

The sanitary situation in western Palm Beach county, along Lake Okechobee, was said to be serious. Bodies were coming to the surface.

HEARD LINCOLN PASTOR TELLS

Reminiscences of Abraham Lincoln and his Gettysburg address were supplied to a group of persons Wednesday night by the Rev. S. V. Sharpe, of Franta, Colorado, after a talk he gave at the Hummel Street Church of the Brethren, in Harrisburg, on "How to Attain a Happy Old Age." The Rev. Mr. Sharpe, who is 92 years of age, is one of the few persons living who heard the famous address.

After Edward Everett, orator of the day, had given the polished address that had been expected of him, speaking for an hour and forty minutes, Lincoln was called upon and gave his address, which required but four and one-half minutes, said the Rev. Mr. Sharpe. There was hardly any applause by the audience of 30,000 persons immediately following the address, but the newspapers of the next day acclaimed it as an unusually fine speech, it was said.

PICK VARSITY AFTER TILT ON SEPTEMBER 29

Coach Bream Will Not Select First String Crew Until After American U. Game.

Varsity selections for the Orange and Blue squad at Gettysburg college will not be made until after the first game, American university at Memorial Field, Gettysburg, Saturday, September 29, according to Head Coach Henry Bream.

Three elevens, with several substitutes for each squad, Teams A, B, and C, are aligned against each other, with each team balanced among the veterans of last year's crew. With these three squads, Coach Bream is sifting through one of the largest turn-outs G-burg has had in years.

Practice sessions so far have been made up of running, kicking, passing, calisthenics, and setting up exercises, with less than an hour's signal drill. The first favorable weather session will find the men lined-up in scrimmage formation, with "slow-motion" blocking, tackling and running. On Saturday afternoon the first real scrimmage session of the season will be the order of the program.

All Men Present

The rainy weather has sent the squad indoors, where Coaches Bream, Frank and Brandiff have been holding "skull" practice.

Every man is "present and accounted" for, and Coach Bream is highly pleased with the condition the men are in. There seems to be little surplus "beef" among the prospective candidates for varsity berths, and the spirit is at high tide, indicating bright hopes for a winning eleven for the Battlefield institution this year.

Six of the nine games on the Bullet schedule will take the team away from its own back yard, and Coach Bream is grooming his warriors for strange fields this season.

ADAMS COUNTY

tion. Pupation takes place within this puparium, and later the adult fly escapes from it.

Robs Plant of Vitality

In feeding on the juice of the wheat plant, the Hessian fly robs it of its vitality, weakens the stem at the point attacked, and often completely kills the tiller. When the grain succeeds in ripening after attack from the fly, the kernels are considerably lightened.

The Carlisle laboratory of the United States Bureau of Entomology is especially concerned with studying the parasites of the Hessian fly. Eighteen of these "natural enemies" have been discovered. They are small wasp-like insects, all bearing delightfully long names, who lay their eggs in the puparium in most cases.

One of them is abundant and effective enough to slay fifty per cent of the fall generation of flies each year, according to Mr. Hill. Another destroys a large percentage of the spring generation. One of the parasitic species lays a single egg on the egg of the Hessian fly. The egg experiences a multiple development, producing a half dozen or more individual parasites who grow inside the hatching fly as it develops, eventually destroying it.

"The average parasitization of the spring generation of the Hessian fly is sixty-two per cent," Mr. Hill says. "The average total mortality of the fly is about ninety-six per cent. The causes of the mortality additional to the sixty-two per cent resulting from parasitization are not fully traceable. Part of it, however, is undoubtedly the result of parasitism."

Complete control of the fly cannot be expected of parasites, he says, "but it is evident that in regions under observation, they are an important factor in checking the increase."

Control measures are a community problem, he declares. He advises destruction of volunteer wheat whenever it appears; plowing under, when practicable, the wheat fields which have been ruined by the Hessian fly; the practice of crop rotation, and avoiding wheat sowing on wheat stubbles, and sowing after the "fly-free" date.

G-BURG PREPS FACE 8 GAMES

One Open Date On Schedule; Season Opens With College Freshmen, Sept. 29.

Coaches Wolfe and Ivory are grooming the Gettysburg academy football squad into fine-fettle for the opening tilt of the season, the battle with the college freshmen on Memorial Field, Saturday, September 29. This game will be a certain riser for the varsity struggle between the Bullets and the American university eleven.

Captain Eden and six regulars of last year's squad are in fine condition and the academy hopes are sky-high for another successful season.

The veterans who returned to help Captain Eden in his dash for new laurels for the academy this year include: Arnold, Eberle, Kost, Marks, Neef and Real.

A string of candidates are lined up for varsity berths. These new players are Allen, Bontner, Davis, Garland, Kuhn, Kundoack, Beckenatime, McDonald, Trostle, Kane, Yeager and Marcantonio.

The academy schedules includes games with York high, Emerson institute, Huntingdon high, Mt. St. Mary's academy, Dickinson Frosh, F. and M. academy and Harrisburg academy. One open date remains to be filled.

The child died soon after it and the mother were brought to the hospital.

COP IS STUNNED BY EVIDENCE AT GRAFT HEARING

Veteran Philadelphia Police Captain Faced With $5,100 Bribe Notes.

Philadelphia, Sept. 20.—As he stood listening to the testimony of one of a score of saloonmen who were accusing him of graft in court yesterday afternoon, Police Captain William C. Knoell nearly collapsed when an assistant District Attorney opened a long manila envelope, addressed to him, and spread its contents upon a table at his side.

There were fifty-one $100 bills in the envelope, the action of the assistant prosecutor revealed.

Then Major Lemuel M. Schofield, who had just caused the arrest of Knoell and two detectives of the district which he has commanded, insisted to Judge Edwin O. Lewis, presiding over the hearing, that the $5,100 so dramatically produced represented Knoell's alleged graft during the two week period of his vacation.

As Judge Lewis craned forward on judicial rostrum, amazement reflected in his eyes and his every gesture, spectators in the crowded courtroom started a concerted advance toward the table on which the tell-tale bills had been spread.

While Knoell blanched in dismay, court attaches swarmed to the front of the courtroom and succeeded, after several minutes' effort, in holding back the throng. A moment later all of the milling spectators had either been ejected from the court room or had quietly resumed their seats.

Record Sensation

Not in the memory of the oldest court observer had the alleged fruits of a policeman's corruption been so sensationally thrust before him, and Knoell, a veteran of the police service here, seemed broken by what had happened.

A few minutes before this astonishing incident occurred one of the score of saloonkeepers who appeared as witnesses against him and two of his Front and Master street detectives, had sworn he had collected $500 a week from 18 other saloon owners and one bartender to pay to one of the detectives. Then this detective had testified that, after deducting $60 for himself, he had placed the rest in an envelope addressed to Knoell and thrust it into a drawer of a dresser in the sleeping quarters of the captain in the police station.

Thus the subsequent display of $5,100 in an envelope addressed to Knoell tended to constitute seemingly overwhelming evidence against him. Judge Lewis seemed extraordinarily impressed, for he held Captain Knoell in $15,000 bail for further hearing. Rarely has a Philadelphia jurist, sitting as a committing magistrate, held an accused policeman in bail exceeding $10,000, it was pointed out.

District Detective Herbert Layre, arraigned with Knoell, was held in $10,000 bail, while District Detective John Sells was held in $5,000 bond.

For Afternoon Wear During Graduation Week

JUNE Week at West Point or Annapolis and Graduation Week at Yale, Harvard or Princeton, all mean a thrilling, breathless round of endless dances, teas and dinners. Betty has always been partial to the Army and we see her here suitably attired from head to toe awaiting her debut. She has selected for the informal hop this afternoon a printed georgette, trimmed in plain bandings to harmonize with the figure, and made in a design which was formed only in evening gowns. The bodice is shirred in front from the V neck to the bow which ties the wide girdle. The long sleeves are pointed at the wrists. The frock has a pleated skirt but a gathered one falling in points to form an uneven hemline is equally smart. Chiffon, silk voile or crepe de chine are other suitable materials that may be used just as effectively for such a frock. (Copyright, 1928, by Butterick)

WILL GLADLY ANSWER LETTERS FROM WOMEN

Asking for Information About Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

MRS. GLADYS ROGERS
Route 2, Grand Ave., Atlanta, Ga.
Atlanta, Ga.—"My mother gave me Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound when I was a girl about 14 years old, when I was just entering womanhood. Then after I married, I took more of it. During the time before my baby was born this medicine gave me splendid results. I have been taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound because I could not eat a thing. I had no appetite whatever and never felt good. I was talking to my friend one day and she passed the remark of how thin I was getting since I got married and I told her my trouble and she advised me to take the Vegetable Compound. I feel a lot better now since I have been taking it regularly and I can eat most anything. I recommend your medicine to anyone who tells me of troubles like my own, for I know what it has done for me. I have also used your Sanative Wash. I am willing to answer women who ask about the medicine."—Mrs. E. GELATIE, Box 502, Trafford, Pa.

Skin Eruptions

successfully treated from within

SKILLED physicians recognize the appearance of pimples, boils and other skin eruptions as being an indication of an abnormal condition of the system.

This is why so many thousands have been enabled to free themselves of these unsightly blemishes and painful skin annoyances by taking a course of S.S.S.

You owe it to yourself and friends to give S.S.S. a trial. It helps Nature build rich, red blood—those vitalizing elements in the blood that build and sustain the body.

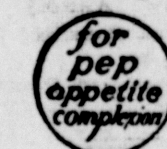

In building rich, red blood cells, S.S.S. improves the processes by which the body is nourished.

"I suffered from impure blood—was weak, and I had lost so much weight, I didn't look natural. I had pimples and was also bothered with a breaking-out that itched terribly. I also had boils one after another. I tried different kinds of remedies, but nothing did me any good until a friend advised me to take S.S.S., which I did. This was some time ago. Now I feel well, and I am getting along fine. S.S.S. stopped the itching and it cured me of boils. I advise all weak and run-down people to give S.S.S. a trial. It clears up the skin and makes you strong and fills you with energy." Mrs. J. W. Barker, 1337 Walnut Street, Cincinnati, Ohio.

All drug stores sell S.S.S. in two sizes. Get the larger size. It is more economical.

Out of the Past

Happenings of Days Gone by as Chronicled in The Star and Sentinel and The Gettysburg Times, the Files Reveal.

Local Miscellany.—Ralph Oylor raised a radish which measured 27 inches in length and 18 inches in circumference.

The Senior class at High School has elected these officers: President, Harold Spangler, Secretary, Miss Amy Swope; Treasurer, Miss Frances Sheely.

Shellbarks are reported scarce in the vicinity.

The following from Gettysburg have entered the Hoiges Shorthand and Typewriting Night School and will pursue the studies of Short-hand and Typewriting: Miss Ethel Weaver, Miss Grace E. Fry and George W. Culp.

Rally Day.—Rally Day exercises were held in the College Lutheran and Presbyterian Sunday Schools Sunday. The attendance was 208 and 106 respectively. Special music was rendered at both places and the exercises were very interesting.

Surprised On His Birthday.—On Tuesday evening, Mr. and Mrs. J. Price Oylor, near town, were treated to a delightful surprise party given in honor of Mr. Oylor's birthday. There were about 50 guests present, all of whom enjoyed themselves greatly playing games and indulging in social conversation. Refreshments were served.

College and Seminary Open.—Gettysburg College opens Thursday morning with the largest number of students in the history of the institution, there being about 100 new students. There are eighty odd students in the Freshman class and a few more are expected to enter.

All of the available rooms in the two dormitories are occupied and a number of students are occupying rooms in town.

The total enrollment at seminary is thirty-six, there being sixteen new students. This is a better attendance than last year and it is expected that several more will enter.

General Local Jottings.—John Wills moved from the Mickle house on Springs avenue back to the Braunreuter house on Baltimore street. Mrs. Adam Erter will occupy the house vacated by the Wills family.

Vincent Orndorff has torn down his old house in Bonneauville and is having a new one erected on the same site.

C. T. Hersh, proprietor of the Eagle Hotel, New Oxford, has purchased through Charles Motter, of York, a Stanley steamer automobile. The machine is a very neat runabout, and can be used to carry four persons if desired.

Today, 37 years ago, Gettysburg from Locals 63 to 62 (Chambersburg Public Opinion of August 25, 1871).—There is nothing doing in town today in baseball circles, but just 37 years ago there was something doing.

On August 24, 1871, all the local citizens, who had a molecule of sporting blood in their veins, wended their way to the ball field. No fan rode on the trolley to the grounds, nor did any use the cabs. They started soon after dinner, for the game with Gettysburg was called at 1 o'clock, and in '71 a Gettysburg game drew the fans just as a Hagerstown one does now.

The local team sported the name "Atlantic." Just why no one remembers. At one o'clock the umpire who was from Gettysburg and is said to have favored his home team somewhat called play. When the ninth inning was on there was great excitement. It was almost 7 o'clock when the game had done.

Make it safe to be hungry!

Breathless youngsters bounding in from school. What healthy appetites they have! By all means give them plenty of nourishing food to fill that between-meal "emptiness." Just be sure of one thing . . . that the food you give them is thoroughly fresh and wholesome. And you can't be absolutely sure unless you have scientifically correct refrigeration.

Milk and meat, fruits and vegetables must be kept at a temperature below 50 degrees at all times if you are to check the growth of bacteria. The General Electric Refrigerator maintains a constant, dry cold, several safe degrees below 50—under all conditions.

This "years ahead" refrigerator is different from all others. It is automatic—surprisingly quiet. All its mechanism is sealed in an air-tight steel casing, so that you never even have to oil it. It makes plenty of ice and uses remarkably little current.

The cabinets stand well above the floor on sturdy legs, with ample broom-room underneath. The top-coils radiate a rising current of air which prevents dust from settling. Come in and see the wide range of models. We will arrange for convenient deferred payments if you wish.

Relief From Curse Of Constipation

A Battle Creek physician says, "Constipation is responsible for more misery than any other cause." But immediate relief has been found. A tablet called Rexall Orderlies has been discovered. This tablet attracts water from the system into the lazy, dry, evacuating bowel called the colon. The water loosens the dry, food waste and causes a gentle, thorough, natural movement without forming a habit or ever increasing the dose. Stop suffering from constipation. Chew a Rexall Orderlie at night, today at The People's Drug Store—adv.
